“ Hello, I'm Giulia Reale from Italy, making some researches about my ancestors emigrated in the US at the beginning of '900. If Salvatore was the son of Charles and Rita I think we are related. I'd like to be in touch with the family, please reach me at malgiulia@yahoo.it.

“ I am so sorry to just learn about Sal's passing now. I didn't know him long or well, but when I helped him build his website, I enjoyed spending time with him and him showing me all his amazing art.

He was a nice man with a lovely family and I know he will be missed. My condolences to Mrs. Reale (who also was a pleasure to know) and his children

He is one of the reasons I started to create some art work and paintings and not just let my paintings be flat! Made me want to add dimension to everything! So I will forever think of him when I create Thank you Sal! I hope there are plenty of pens in heaven!

“ Mrs Reale,
I remember when I first moved up to West Milford and met the Reale's. As a kid I played with Jimmy and Danielle. In the eyes of a kid, Mr Reale was a tall, strapping, good looking man with a bouldering voice, he could easily strike fear in your heart. As I grew up, I understood that the Reale's were a kindhearted generous family. Mr Reale never thought twice about helping out our family. When I stopped by the old neighbourhood to see my parents, I occasionally made time to say hi to Mr and Mrs Reale. When I ran for school board I went to seek out Mr Reale's counsel and advise, he was always there to listen and give good guidance. I've had the opportunity to visit Italy on occasion and Mr Reale and I would discuss the art's and history, I enjoyed our conversations about politics as well, and appreciated his viewpoints.
Mr Reale was a father, a businessman, an artist, a patriot and a friend. Like everyone else who's lives he has touched, I will truly miss him.

Semper fidelis Mr Reale!
