“ I met Steve in 1971 shortly after becoming friends with his son, Tom. He took me by surprise with his comments about our teen-aged appearance and how much it cost to raise us to that point. He was the same character the last time I saw him a few years ago. He always showed you a tough exterior but he was a very kind man to me throughout the years who built an extraordinary family. As my role as father I have found myself thinking about what he said to me over 40 years ago and realizing the truth in his words! Cheers Steve, may God Bless and Keep You Always.
