“ That was always a huge fear of mine when I first became a mommy... having a child ripped out of my arms by a tornado. All three of my boys LOVE trains! They are Thomas fanatics and can tell you about all the different types of train cars-- double decker, gondola, etc. What a special tribute to the family's son! It's nice to see a company with heart that will do something nice for someone else.

“ I will miss my friend Steve and the many conversations we shared. His respect for others views and opinions with a strong belief in his own made for discussions that were informative, lengthy, and with his inane sense of humor, spirited and memorable. His friendship and fellowship will not be forgotten.
