Thomas Schiavone, 67, of Stockholm, NJ, ended his ten year battle with Alzheimer's and passed away on Tuesday, December 2, 2025.

He was born on January 21, 1958 in Englewood, NJ to the late Irma (Carmelatano) Schiavone and the late Anthony Schiavone.

Thomas attended Morris Knolls High School in Denville, NJ, earned his Business Administrative degree from William Patterson College.

For more than 30 years he was the store manager for A&P Supermarkets at various locations.

He married Missy Bolton in 1983, celebrating 42 years of loving marriage and resided in Stockholm where they raised their family.

Thomas will best be remembered as an animal lover to any animal that was brought home, even if he said no. As well as a storyteller, prankster and a joker; in his spare time he enjoyed vacationing with his family; computer science and finance; watching his Green Bay Packers win with a cold beer in hand; tinkering around his house and garage working on his “inventions” and last but not least, showing off his dance moves, especially the worm, even up to the very end.

He was predeceased by his mother Irma in 2013, his father Anthony in 2025 and his son-in-law Michael Santa Maria in 2023.

Thomas is survived by his beloved wife Missy Schiavone; his cherished children Elicia Santa Maria, Tyler Schiavone and his wife Samantha, and Michael Schiavone; his loving brother Anthony Schiavone and his wife Jill and his loving sister Annie Burkley; his dear nieces and nephews Eric Holling and his wife Katie, Rachael Schiavone and husband Chris, Matthew Schiavone and wife Sarah, Tori and Robert Burkley and great niece Sophia Schiavone.

The final disposition will be private by the family.

In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to Father John's Animal House, “ Tom was my store manager for many years when I was a teenager into my college years, when I worked at the Paterson store. Tom was just an amazing person. He took great care of me, knowing that I was in college and quite busy with trying to balance work and school. He was so good to the employees and really cared about people. May he rest in peace. If his family is reading this, please know how much I appreciated Tom.
