“ I will forever miss her kind eyes and her lovely smile, her willingness to help, her determination to overcome, and her incredible inner strength.

And though my heart is filled with great sadness, I am so glad, that I got to know her.

“ Vicky meant so much to me at work. She was always helpful and so generous with her expertise even though I was not in her department. Her humor was a delight and her bravery was phenomenal. I miss the Emerald Kingdom behind her desk, her garden of plants, and most of all her bright smile, her intelligence, and her fighting spirit. Rest in peace, inspiring Vicky. -Kristin Nelson, Psychology Dept. CCM

“ I am so sad. I loved Vicky and knew her for 25 years. She was the nicest and the bravest woman I ever knew. Jess and Doug my prayers are with you. Jess, you are so like her and she was so proud of you. I will never go to Homers without remembering Vicky. I was blessed to know and love her. Jess my email 78jwalters@gmail.com.

“ Vicky was a good friend and colleague at CCM. I had known her from the time she was the Admin in the Modern Languages Department, during which time she was fighting the disease that ultimately took her from us all. She was feisty, opinionated and straightforward. She was a powerful woman who was not afraid to share her health struggles with us, but never was self-pitying or self-centered. She was a friend to us all and listened to all our daily complaints and trials. She was amazingly good humored despite the bad days she had from her treatments. When Vicky left the Sociology Department, we lost our rock and our friend. Now we cannot even see her in the halls or in her last office. But we hope that one day we will see her again in that place where all tears and suffering will be wiped away, and we will once again rejoice with those we love. Rest in peace, Vicky. You certainly deserve it.

“ We meet at CCM around 11 years ago. We have been good friends since day one. We always laughed and share our favorite chocolates, which both of us loved. We also share a passion for the Wizard of Oz, our favorite movie. Vicky I will miss you a lot. I always admire your strong character through your difficult time, always with a smile on your face. Always with a nice word. RIP dear friend, I miss you already.

“ I will forever miss my dear friend. We laughed and cried together. Friday mornings were quiet in the office. We were the only ones there and we would often eat scones or muffins. We talked and shared many things. I will miss her corned beef at the holiday parties, her love for Wicked and sweet laugh. Our get-together, holiday party and birthday celebrations won't be the same. This is the impact that a beautiful soul like Vicky's had on the people around her. Her optimism and strength were admirable. To me, the idea that she's not here with us doesn't seem real. It is difficult to comprehend. I firmly believe she's still with us. We love you, my friend. I send my (and Julio's) love and condolences to Jess, Dough and the rest of the family. Marcia
