“ To Aunt Laura and Steven:

I know we may have never had the chance to really know each other and I hope that will change. I recently found out through my father (Paul) about his passing. Words cannot express how awful I feel for the both of you. I know it has been a few years now, but for what it's worth I am terribly sorry for your loss. May God be with you and heal your broken hearts. May he rest in peace.
