“ My wife and I met Willy in 1988 when he inspected our first house and, needless to say, his expertise was astounding. Willy inspected a number of homes for us over the next 20 years and always made us comfortable with his disarming nature. Willy was a terrific person and was always there over the years to answer technical questions and did so with true interest. We haven't seen Willy in some time, but got to work with his partner, John Foster, so we loved working with Willy's family of professionals. Godspeed Willy, you will be missed.

“ I met Willy back in the early 1990's and became one of his business partners in a pest control company in 1995. I learned many things on how to run and business and learned alot on pest identification. He will be missed greatly. I think of him alot. God Bless.

“ My heart goes out to Willy's family. I worked for Willy from the time I was 18 years old till into my 30s. He was a good boss and a funny guy. He was an excellent home inspector and sought after by many in the industry for his expertise and knowledge. Im so sorry to hear of his passing. Sending prayers and love to his entire family.

I met Willy at Our Savior Lutheran Church in Stanhope, NJ. He was a faithful worshiper & a great guy. He helped our fund raising efforts for a new organ. We miss his presence & his friendly smile. Rest in Peace my Brother.

I watched a movie earlier today that had an actor who's last name was Dittmar. That got me thinking of an old friend from my navy days named Willy C. We were shipmates on the USS Wright CC-2 back in 68. Since we were both from Jersey, we would share riding home up the NJ Turnpike. He was always a great guy and always had a joke and a story. I haven't spoken to him since 1969 but his memory lives on in me. Rest in peace shipmate! Dennis Dunn mkcdunn@yahoo.com
